4. Skills to be gained / general learning objectives

At the end of this module, the students have to:

handle the most of the skills in Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing, corresponding to level B1 – related to economics –, as defined by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Thus students can “understand the main points of clear standard language input on familiar topics regularly encountered at work, school, leisure, etc.; deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken; produce simple connected texts on topics which are familiar or of personal interest; describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes & ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.”

(Cadre européen commun de référence pour les langues : apprendre, enseigner, évaluer. Paris, Didier, 2001, p 25.)

5. Teaching and content

Topics and vocabulary: Students will learn a wide range of economic vocabulary studying a variety of documents from up-to-date media sources. Additional political and socio-cultural topics will be studied.

Grammar: Learning and/or consolidating of grammar skills at Level B1.
