

Internship Vacancies Sucden Geneva

Sucden is a leader in soft commodity trading, actively engaged in a diverse range of products and services, including sugar, coffee, cocoa, ethanol, ocean freight, and futures/options brokerage. Our extensive portfolio spans agriculture and sourcing, processing, logistics, distribution, merchandising, financing, research, and risk management.

We are currently seeking two enthusiastic interns to join our dynamic team. The positions available are as follows:

1. Logistics Intern

Job Summary:

As a Logistics Intern, you will play a crucial role in supporting our logistics team and gain invaluable experience working in a trading environment. Your responsibilities will include collaborating closely with experienced traders and engaging in logistical planning for our truck distribution business in Europe.

Primary Duties:

- Provide assistance to our logistics team in day-to-day operations, with a specific focus on European truck distribution business.
- Optimize operational processes based on the knowledge and insights acquired during your internship.

Required/Preferred Qualifications:

- Business fluency in English.
- Highly structured working methods.
- Demonstrated curiosity and eagerness to continuously learn.

2. Business Development Intern

Job Summary:

As a Business Development Intern, you will actively participate in our sales and business development activities in Europe. This internship offers a unique opportunity to gain extended exposure to customer acquisition and expanding our market presence.

Primary Duties:

- Support various business development activities to drive growth and enhance our market reach in Europe, especially in Germany.

Required/Preferred Qualifications:

- Business fluency in English and German.
- Highly structured working methods.
- Demonstrated curiosity and eagerness to continuously learn.

Location:

Geneva, Switzerland

Experience Level:

None

Employment Category:

Six months internship, immediate start possible. This is an exciting opportunity for individuals interested in enhancing their knowledge of logistics/trading or business development in a fast-paced environment.

Hiring Details:

Immediate start possible. Competitive compensation. Please send your application with a cover letter and CV to Mr. von Soest (hvonsoest@sucden.com).

At Sucden, we believe in fostering a collaborative and growth-oriented environment, providing our interns with meaningful experiences that will contribute to their professional development. If you are passionate about the commodities trading industry and eager to make a difference, we encourage you to apply for one of these rewarding internship positions.

Join us at Sucden Geneva and embark on a journey of learning, growth, and innovation in the exciting world of soft commodities trading. Apply today!